Hey there! I think republicans are far more hypocritical than democrats user1

I believe republicans are far more hypocritical than democrats user2

Completely agreed. It is especially funny to me that the republican party is often spewing about "Christian values" but only preach and don't practice user1

For example, it's Democrats that help the poor, welcome foreigners, help the sick, and generally overall respect others. Republicans are selfish in all of those aspects. user1 Take the topic of abortion and gun shootings won't happen user2 I agree, and I find that republicans are far more closed-minded to even consider their own hypocrisy.

control....they want to ban abortions so abortions wont happen but won't ban guns so right now he would probably be a socialist but to the republicans socialist is a horrible word user2 Absolutely! Great point.

100% agree... I have no doubt that if Jesus was walking the earth

To piggyback what you said about socialism, look how Germany is helping us with the baby formula shortage! "Socialist" societies aren't completely falling apart the way our capitalist structure is. user1 They also love to hang their hat on the constitution, such as the 2nd amendment. However, the 14th that and extend rights to the unborn. user2 Exactly! user2 amendments states "all persons born..." but they seem to ignore impeachable?? Give me a break. user1 In Germany they would never allow 1 company to own 95% of the stake of a market.

The abortion/gun rights arguments change actualy policies that would protect the already-born children in their own classrooms issues.

Also, republicans tried to impeach Bill Clinton for abuse of power, but now abuse of power it's have hit especially close to us all lately, haven't they? These politicians and the people that praise their every move are obsessed withprotecting the unborn but don't bat an eyelash to

A group of republicans held a press conference to talk about how horrible the formula shortage is and then walked into the capitol and voted against a bill to help ease the problem. I often wonder if they didn't have financial incentives if they would vote more like democrats on such Imagine if the NRA didn't fund a single politician. What would things look like then? user1 I was talking to my dad the other day and we were talking about if there was a burning building and you could only save 1 room and you have a room with 1000 embryos and a room with 3 5 year olds which would the republican save? Well I think we now know the answer to that. The embryos Bingo. It's so frustrating. You and your dad are exactly right.

OMG yes! Imagine if lobbying were illegal. Thing would be so different

The party that is all "fuck your feelings" is also always calling names, crowing that they love when we are upset and offended, etc. user1
