I think they're both hypocritical but it's really glaring how the GOP is hypocritical about pro life but also pro death penalty and guns user1

I think Republicans are more so but I definitely agree that both are. user2

> Even at their root, Republicans want small government but have massive military budgets and pass bills to control our personal bodies user1

I feel like we've seen a lot of the pro-life where they care until life (birth) actually happens. user2

I agree. user2

It's a lot of I want this until it applies to them directly and then oh it's okay because they need it. user2

Single mothers are one of the most important parts of cheap workforce user1 Right? it's always republican mistresses that need abortions

Because ultimately it's about control. They want pregnant people to be stuck in poverty and potentially abusive relationships.

wage either. They need to have to stay in their jobs and not move up or have an opportunity to make changes. user2

One of the biggest things I don't see get a lot of attention too is their attitudes towards the homeless.

Yes. Let's not give them a living user2 Corporations mean more to them. Just look at the stranglehold the NRA has on them. I bet abbott

A lot of Republicans try to make changes based on their religious beliefs but if they see someone in need...let's make it a felony for them to be there. user2
